~~I love Jeff Abbot's writing. Collision was definitely an excellent thriller with lots of intertwined plots going on at the same time. My only problem not giving this book 5 stars was that there were way too many characters involved in all the various plots at the same time. For me that was a little distracting.~~

~~'The Collision' by Jeff Abbott was a random book selection for me. I'd not heard of the author but the story concept looked intriguing when I read the jacket. And it was really well written. I had trouble in the beginning following the different storyline beginnings. I think this stems more from my personal inability to remember names than it does the writing itself. Once the different ...~~
