A Pulitzer Prize finalist presents an unstinting exploration of today's controversial fracking technologies to consider the arguments of its supporters and detractors, profiling key contributors while explaining how the practice is changing the way energy is used.

After the sudden death of her husband, Eleanor decides to take a break from her everyday life and make a fresh start. But a new life isn't easy when your old one refuses to be left behind... No one knows this more than Eleanor's niece Lesley. Drawn into a passionate relationship with the mysterious Jonathan, will their love be enough to overcome his secrets, or will the shadows of his past engulf them both? Nobody I Know is a story of lives lost and love found, a romance and a mystery about the people we are and the people we want to be. Phyl Wright is married and lives in Bearsden, Dunbartonshire, Scotland, with her husband and two cats. Phyl has three grown-up children who live nearby. Previously published in M8 magazine, this is her first novel.

Joyce and Marshall each think the other is killed on September 11 and must swallow their disappointment when the other arrives home. As their bitter divorce is further complicated by anthrax scares, suicide bombs, and foreign wars, they suffer, in ways unexpectedly personal and increasingly ludicrous, the many strange ravages of our time. In this astonishing black comedy, Kalfus suggests how our nation's public calamities have encroached upon our most private illusions.

This is the story of the soon to be 17-year-old Loresha Evans, a junior in high school who has just won the election for student body president. She learns from the difficulty of leading a reluctant student council and noncaring student body the importance of patience and diplomacy. Loresha's social status changes and she becomes a member of the school's "in crowd." The price is the loss of her best friend. She experiences her first love, but is he right for her? Loresha's time in office as Major Horris High School's student president brings her face to face with school politics and personal challenges. This is the first book of the Loresha Evans trilogy.

In 2080, technology has gone too far for J.L. Cooper. He thinks he can avoid pop travel teleportation, until he stumbles onto a video of a traveler who turns to dust. Sparking a series of murders, attempts on his life, and threats to his brother, Cooper wants to pass off the evidence but knows he's being watched and can't trust anyone. And who would believe him? With help from the neurotic, genius "Creator" and a beautiful Southern charmer, Cooper faces his fears and pop teleports around the world to escape corporate killers and find a way to shut down Pop Travel or die trying. No problem.
