Etiquette is a sensitive awareness of the feelings of others, they remind us. Ultimately, being considerate, respectful, and honest is what's really important in building positive relationships. "Please" and "thank you" do go a long way, and whether it's a handshake, a hug, or a friend request, it's the underlying sincerity

The epic story also told in the film FORD V. FERRARI: By the early 1960s, the Ford Motor

Online Library Fender Mustang

Company, built to bring automobile

transportation to the masses, was falling behind. Young Henry Ford II, who had taken the reins of his grandfather's company
with little business experience to speak of,
knew he had to do something to shake things up. Baby boomers were taking to the road in droves, looking for speed not safety, style not comfort. Meanwhile, Enzo Ferrari, whose

cars epitomized style, lorded it over the European racing scene.
He crafted beautiful
sports cars, "science fiction on wheels," but was also called "the Assassin" because so many drivers perished

while racing them. Go Like Hell tells the remarkable story of how Henry Ford II, with the help of a young visionary named Lee Iacocca and a former racing champion turned engineer, Carroll Shelby, concocted a scheme to reinvent the Ford company. They would enter the high-stakes world of

European car racing,
where an adventurous few threw safety and sanity to the wind. They would design, build, and race a car that could beat Ferrari at his own game at the most prestigious and brutal
race in the world, something no American car had ever done. Go Like Hell transports
readers to a risk-filled, glorious time in this brilliant portrait of a rivalry between two industrialists, the cars they built, and the "pilots" who would drive them to victory, or doom.
