Posts about Sparkers written by Eleanor Glewwe. Last weekend I was in Chicago because I was giving a talk at the Chicago Linguistic Society's conference (I had an awfully good time the last time I went to CLS two years ago). Shortly before I left, my advisor sent me a magazine article about a Georgian restaurant (the only Georgian restaurant?) in Chicago.

Eleanor Glewwe I read your book "Sparkers" and I couldn't stop reading the book until I got to the end. I was literally up at 12:00 in the morning reading the book. I think you should make another book about Mariah's story. I promise you I will have the whole series by the time you are done with writing the book.
